Children who get any of the above benefits in their own right (i.e. they get benefits payments directly, instead of through a parent or guardian) may also be entitled to the remissions of charges for board and lodging costs during residential school trips.

Children under the compulsory school age who are in full time education may also be able to get free school meals (see page 5).

Children, whose parents or carers are in need of financial assistance for board and lodging costs during residential school trips, can make an appointment with the Headteacher to discuss any support required. Each case will be judged on an individual basis and in confidence. Appointments can be made via the School Office.
